REPORT ON SPECTRA 2K18-A two-day management fest

The aim is to encourage talent from different colleges and provide a platform to promote healthy competitions among the budding managers of our country. turn students to be the future leaders and excel in the field of management.

The best thing about those events was that, the events weren't just for the fun, they were actually related to the management skills & were giving participants the exposure to the real world work experience.
