1. Attendance and Examination Process

- a) A candidate shall be considered to have satisfied the requirement of attendance for a semester if he/she attends not less than 75% of the number of classes actually held up to the end of the semester in each of the subjects.
- b) If the candidate is detained due to lack of required attendance, he/she has to repeat the course. He/she will not be permitted to the subsequent semester unless he/she complete the detained semester. Condonation for the shortage of attendance may be granted on the recommendation of the Principal of the College concerned provided, that no condonation shall be recommended in the case of candidates who have not put in attendance at the college for at least 65% of the total number of working days.
- c) If a candidate represents his/her institution/University/State/ Nation in Sports/ NCC/ NSS/ Cultural or any officially sponsored activities he/she may be permitted to claim attendance for actual number of days participated, based on the recommendation of the Head of the Institution concerned. If a candidate is selected to participate in national level events such as Republic Day Parade etc., he/she may be permitted to claim attendance for actual number of days participated based on the recommendation of the head of the Institution concerned.
- d) The Principal is authorized to condone the shortage of attendance in theory & practical courses in deserving cases, by collecting prescribed fee. However, the student should have to put in a minimum attendance of 60% in aggregate of the total number of periods worked in theory or practical courses for that programme.
- e) Any student of II – VI semesters who fail to satisfy rules attendance shall be required to repeat the semester, in the next academic year. However, a student of I semester in the event of detention or discontinuation should seek fresh admission.
- f) All the students who have registered for Semester-end Examinations and satisfy rules of attendance are eligible for promotion irrespective of their Pass or Fail.

Registration for Examination:

A candidate shall register for all the papers of a semester when he/she appears for the examination of that semester for the first time. The student, who has not registered for the semester shall not be permitted to attend the examinations for the next semester and he shall repeat the same semester in the next year along with his/her juniors.

Conduct of Semester end Examinations:

There shall be Theory and Practical examinations at the end of each semester, ordinarily during October/November for odd semesters and during April/May for even semesters, as prescribed in the Scheme of Examinations. A student who had required percentage of attendance and paid the examination fee and has not attended the semester end examinations for various

Conduct of practical examinations:

As stated in the schemes of examination, practical examinations shall be conducted at the end of each semester.

UG Courses:

The odd semester practical examinations are to be conducted with both internal examiners. The even semester practical examinations (year-end) are to be conducted by two examiners, one internal and one external and shall never be conducted by both internal examiners.

Minimum for a Pass:

UG Courses:

No candidate shall be declared to have passed the Semester Examination unless he/she obtains not less than 35% marks in semester end examination (i.e. 26 out of 75 marks) and 40% marks in the aggregate of semester end examination and internal assessment put together in each of the subjects (i.e. 40 out of 100 marks), 40% marks in foundation courses and practical examinations. Further, a candidate has to secure a minimum of 4.0 SGPA for a pass in each semester. A student who fails to secure over all 40% should re-appear for the external examination in the respective semester exam only.

Internal Assessment:

1. The examination system would be 75 marks for Semester end examination and 25 marks for internal assessment.

The internal assessment evaluation would be as follows:

- Two written Mid Semester Examinations should be conducted for fifteen marks each and the average of both written examinations will be awarded.
 - Five marks for seminars/quiz/assignments.
 - Five marks for Swachhata Activity.
2. The Internal assessment marks shall be communicated to the Controller of Examinations at least 15 days before the commencement of the semester end examinations.
 - There shall be no minimum pass marks percentage fixed for the internal assessment of theory and practical.
 - There is no provision to have revaluation of internal marks or to call back the marks statements issued in the earlier semesters.
 - The internal assessment should be done during the course time in the respective semester only i.e. no repetition for internal assessment of theory and practical.
 - Re-mid exam shall be conducted to the students, who seek prior permission from the Principal to attend NCC/NSS/Sports activities.
